KICK-OFF 7.30 p.m.

STADIUM FOCUS

in our last Matchday Magazine, the possibility arose that we could face a further tie with Millwall, this time here at Leyton Stadium, on the basis that our South London neighbours had also qualified for the quarter-finals as one of the highest-scoring clubs eliminated at the second round stage.

At the time of going to press, a result was still awaited from a southern region tie between Swansea and Newport before a clearer picture emerged.

Millwall, incidentally, last season reached the quarter-final stage of this new competition under the same "repechage" rule, only to be eliminated by Bournemouth, the eventual winners.

A reminder that we have two evening matches on this ground during the days immediately ahead of us.

On Thursday (7.30 p.m.) we play host to Servoarm Isthmian League club Aveley in the second round of the Essex Thameside Trophy.

If this game follows the pattern of the opening round match with East Thurrock then an entertaining tie seems assured.

Next Tuesday, again at 7.30 p.m., we stage a further Canon League match with Brentford.

Postponement of this game arose on the day of the third round of the FA Cup.

The Brentford fixture brings Orient the chance of their first Third Division double of season 1984-85, remembering that we were 1-0 winners at Griffin Park on the opening day.

Earlier than customary printing deadlines as the Easter holiday period approached have meant that today's Matchday Magazine contains no reference to the outcome of Orient's game at Lincoln City last Saturday.

Other statistical items will inevitably be "dated" for the same reason.

Tommy Cunningham figures in aerial combat with his opposite number, Gary Peters, during the first half of the recent match with Reading here. Cunningham finished the game with an ankle injury, while in the case of Andy Sussex, background, this Orient player left the stadium with his injury, also to an ankle, in plaster.

Bolton Wanderers, with their surprise 3-0 victory at York, considerably relieved the prospect of relegation that has haunted them all season.

It was only the second occasion they had gained points away from Burnden Park in Canon League matches during 1984-85, and it is fair to say that had their record when travelling to opposition venues been half as impressive as that in home games they would have been in the top half of the table.

Orient when they gained a 0-0 draw at Bolton on New Year's Day were one of the few clubs to avoid defeat on that ground this season.

Since then Wanderers have parted company with manager John McGovern and their playing affairs have been under the charge of coach Charlie Wright.

Their record in Canon League matches on opponents' grounds this season, up to and including their visit to York on March 29, read:

Won 2-1 at Bristol Rovers, 3-0 at York; Drew 2-2 at Hull;

Lost 0-4 at Bournemouth, 1-2 at Bradford, 1-2 at Brentford, 2-3 at Bristol City, 2-3 at Burnley, 2-3 at Derby, 0-2 at Doncaster, 0-2 at Lincoln, 2-3 at Newport, 0-2 at Plymouth, 0-1 at Preston, 1-3 at Reading, 1-3 at Rotherham, 1-2 at Swansea, 0-1 at Walsall, 0-1 at Wigan

Bolton's 53 Canon League goals have been credited to Caldwell 14, Oghani 12, Chandler 11, Joyce 5, Foster 4, Thompson 3, Rudge, Came, Phillips, Jones (York) 1 each.)

SIMON FARNWORTH (Goalkeeper) Former apprentice from Chorley who is now 21. Came into the side last season and made 36 League appearances.

JOHN PLATT (Goalkeeper) Injuries robbed this former Oldham goalkeeper of a chance of a regular place last season after joining the club on a free transfer from Bury during the summer of 1983. Is now 28.

BRIAN BORROWS (Defender) Born Liverpool, age 24. Had 27 League games for Everton before joining Wanderers during season 1982-83. Bolton's Player of the Year last season. Can also play in midfield.

PAUL LODGE (Midfield) A 24-year-old Liverpoolian who served his apprenticeship with Everton who gave him his League debut. Had stays on loan with Wigan and Rotherham before spending two seasons with Preston. Joined Wanderers on a free transfer last summer.

JEFF CHANDLER (Forward) Republic of Ireland international from Hammersmith now 25. Commenced career as a Blackpool apprentice, later moving on to Leeds United. Cost Bolton £40,000 when he joined them from Elland Road in October, 1981. Scored 14 League goals last season and is again into double figures.

BOLTON WANDERERS

IAN BAILEY (Defender) Former Middlesbrough apprentice who had his league debut during 1975-76 season. Has previously had stays on loan at Carlisle and Doncaster. Made Bolton debut last month. Is now 29.

WARREN JOYCE (Midfield) A 20-year-old from Oldham who made his debut two seasons ago. Missed just one match of the 1983-84 programme. An all-round sportsman who has played county cricket at colts level and is a Rugby Union schoolboy tourist.

PETER VALENTINE (Defender) A 21-year-old former Huddersfield Town player who made his League debut upon joining Wanderers and missed only four games last season.

RAY DEAKIN (Defender) A former Everton apprentice now 25. Played 23 League games for Port Vale during season 1981-82, and is now approaching the 100 mark for Wanderers.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield) A 20-year-old former apprentice from Oldham who had his debut two seasons ago. Right-side of midfield man who is the son of a former Football League player.

SIMON RUDGE (Forward) Born Warrington. Stands just 5ft 6½ins. Former apprentice now 20 who has made regular appearances during the past two seasons that saw him reach double figures as a scorer.

JIMMY PHILLIPS (Defender) A 19-year-old former apprentice who made his full League debut against Bristol Rovers on the opening day of last season, that proving his only appearance.

WAYNE FOSTER (Forward) A 21-year-old hard running ex-England youth international who has now topped 80 League appearances for the club. Former Burnden Park apprentice from Leigh.

GRAHAM BELL (Midfield) Experienced Football League player who was 30 last week. Joined Wanderers on a free transfer from Carlisle last season and played 20 League games. Previously had lengthy stays with Oldham and Preston, besides playing two games on loan with Huddersfield. Former England youth international.

MARK CAME (Defender) Born Exeter. Gave up regular employment to join Wanderers last season from non-League Winsford United. Is 23 and made debut during the current season.

TONY CALDWELL (Forward) Now 27, he had his first taste of League football last season when he made a major impact, his 19 Third Division goals including five in Wanderers' 8-1 win over Walsall. Was then a part-timer, working as an electrician. Has since earned a full contract, his earlier football having been played with, Salford, Irlam, Hyde and Horwich RML non-League clubs.

GEORGE OGHANI (Forward) A 24-year-old from Manchester. Joined Wanderers from Hyde United and had League debut last season, when he played just three first-team games. Has made frequent appearances during the current programme and is a double-figure goalscorer for the club.

Unexpected away wins by PRESTON and BOLTON at DONCASTER and YORK respectively brought renewed pressure upon their fellow strugglers against relegation from the Third Division as the Easter period approached.

In Bolton's case it was only the second occasion in 18 away games that they had avoided defeat this season. It was a particularly welcome result for the Burnden Park club as the danger was that they would "run out of games" in their bid to stay clear of the drop, having played significantly more matches than other teams around them.

The Easter period could by now have produced further upsets as the final weeks of the season approach, so here we set out the fixture tasks of those teams which, at the time of this Matchday Magazine going to press — earlier than customary in view of the holiday break — were under varying degrees of threat from relegation.

ORIENTAL RETROSPECT

SEASON 1979-80

Orient are beaten 2-0 at West Ham in a Second Division match on the Easter weekend.

For West Ham the result means they have completed a 1979-80 League double over Orient, scoring six goals without reply.

A gate figure of 22,066 for the Upton Park game means that nearly 46,000 spectators have witnessed the season's two East London derby games.

Three days later Orient visit Queens Park Rangers for a further London derby and share a 1-1 draw with Bobby Fisher the Os' goal-scorer.

There is an attendance of 9,389 for this match.

Orient's injury list at the time includes second string goalkeeper Sean Rafter, who has had to enter hospital for surgery on a back condition, and his fellow reserve team men Nigel Meeking and Steve Hamberger, who both have knee ligament damage.

SEASON 1974-75

Gerry Queen scored Orient's goal in a 1-1 draw with Oxford United at Leyton Stadium on Easter Monday, March 31, 1975.

The following weekend Orient are beaten 2-0 by promotion-seeking Norwich City at Carrow Road in front of 17,559 spectators.

Next visitors to East London are Bolton Wanderers who, on Saturday, April 12, figure in a 0-0 draw. The crowd is 5,478.

Member of the Bolton side is Gary Jones who, the following season, attracts an offer from Orient.

Negotiations reach an advanced stage with the possibility that Gerry Queen and Barrie Fairbrother will join Bolton. In the event the deal does not materialise.

On the reserve team front, Orient hold second place in the Midweek League table compiled as at April 8, the club's leading scorers in this competition being Dean Mooney and Roy Cotton with 12 and nine goals respectively.

Leading positions:

	P	W	D	L	Pts
Colchester	24	14	6	4	34
Orient	23	13	6	4	32
Southend	26	13	6	7	32
Luton	24	11	7	6	29

SEASON 1969-70

Orient gain their eighth Third Division away victory of the season when they win 1-0 at Doncaster on Easter Monday, March 30, 1970.

After this success there follows the rarity of a Saturday evening match at Leyton Stadium when Os beat Barrow 2-0 with goals from Tommy Taylor and Mark Lazarus.

The game against a club already destined to be relegated to the Fourth Division kicks off at 6.30 p.m. to avoid a clash with both that afternoon's televising of the Grand National and an Arsenal-West Ham First Division derby match at Highbury.

The Barrow game is followed by what Orient Chairman Arthur Page describes as a major disaster at Walsall the following Tuesday.

Orient are beaten 2-0 by the West Midlands and stalwart midfield man Peter Allen is controversially sent off for the only time in his lengthy Football League career.

Despite this setback, the Third Division table's leading positions after the games of Tuesday, April 7 are:

	P	W	D	L	Pts
Bristol Rovers	44	20	16	8	56
Orient	41	22	11	8	55
Brighton	44	22	9	13	53
Barnsley	45	19	14	12	52
Luton	41	19	13	9	51
Reading	42	20	10	12	50

The St. John Ambulance Brigade, who provide a valuable first aid service at all Orient first team matches, are always pleased to receive donations and inquiries from prospective members.

The Brigade gives its services entirely free to all sporting events. Local representative is John Newman, of Redfearn, Bury Road, Epping (Epping 72545).

AS FRANK

At this stage of a season there are few professional footballers in the Canon League who are not carrying an injury or a nagging minor knock of some sort.

Unless the problem warrants caution, it is usually a case of the player gritting his teeth and getting on with the job.

In our own case, the build-up to our last match here against Reading saw both Tommy Cunningham and Kevin Godfrey unable to undertake more than nominal training on the Friday morning because of a knee injury and persisting groin trouble respectively.

As it happened, Tommy duly suffered a further injury, this time to an ankle, during that one Friday session!

Kevin's discomfort has been such that for some time now he has been playing 90 minutes of Third Division football on the strength of just one training session a week, usually that on the Friday morning immediately prior to a given match.

In the circumstances, it is fair to say we have had very good value from him.

The match with Reading was, I felt, of immense credit to the players of both clubs, remembering how they were confronted by a swirling and teasing wind. Despite it, they produced a competitive and, to my mind, entertaining contest.

It was no classic, and there won't be many of those in any division at this stage of the season, but despite the wind the match certainly offered an intriguing contrast in team styles.

Compared with our own style, Reading play their game at a very high tempo and certainly try to get the ball forward early.

Like us, they had their chances, and if you count the number of times shots struck bodies in the respective goalmouths, it could be said that this was a 0-0 draw in which both defences acquitted themselves capably.

Obviously we would have preferred to have completed such a testing 90 minutes with three points rather than one, but a draw did mean that we had taken ten points from six matches, a return we certainly need to maintain and indeed improve upon if we are to climb the table.

The injury to Andy Sussex came at an inopportune time for us during the Reading match. For with just over a quarter of an hour remaining we seemed to be finding some genuine momentum.

Our supporters apparently sensed this and were getting behind us, only for Andy's departure with an ankle injury to break this rhythm.

Andy in fact left the ground that evening with his injury in plaster and had no chance of playing at York on the Tuesday.

3 ways to win with Canon

Win for yourself and for your club. Over £20,000 in prizes to be won.

3 ways to win

Canon is in a league of its own; now it's in your league too – with over £20,000 worth of prizes. You have between now and the end of the season to win for yourself – and for your club.

Rules

Both competitions are open to U.K. residents, except employees and their families, of Canon (UK) Ltd, The Football League Ltd, and Football League clubs, their agents or anyone directly connected with the competition or its administration. By entering the competition, all competitors will be deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by the rules and instructions as provided.

Entry instructions form part of the rules. The prizes will be awarded in order of merit to those competitors who have, in the opinion of the judges:

Spell & Win – collected the highest number of points for the winning club in each division (in the event of a tie or ties, a further postal competition will be held).

Shoot for Goal – most closely placed the photos in correct chronological sequence (in the event of a tie, prizes will be awarded to the entrants correctly naming the most players in photograph A).

Winners will be notified by post during the week commencing 29th July 1985 and a list of winners will be published in Competitors' Journal and in Football League club programmes. Full rules are available from the competition address on receipt of a stamped, addressed envelope.

Spell & Win

Simply collect the letters, spell the words and you could win a Canon T70 camera that is our first prize for the top points scorer in the winning club in each of the four divisions: there are ten runners up prizes of £50 each in each winning club too.

Your points work both for you and your club. Every club has been given a rating, based on their average Canon League attendance this season. Total points for each club are divided by its rating and the club that scores the most in each division wins a cash prize: Division 1 £4,000, Division 2 £3,000, Division 3 £2,500, Division 4 £1,500. The top 11 scorers from each of these winning clubs will be special guests of their club for a Canon League match next season.

You can use each letter once; they should be taped or glued firmly in position on the entry form. Canon Balls can be used for any letter, but only one can be used per word. If you manage to spell all four words your points total automatically doubles to 200.

CLARK SEES IT...

MANAGEMENT VIEWPOINT

Barry Silkman, whose attack of flu had made him doubtful until an hour before the Reading game kicked off, was also out of the reckoning, his efforts over the 90 minutes on the Saturday having clearly taken their toll.

Barry and Lee Harvey, who was already on our sick list, were joined by a third flu victim in Shaun Brooks. And with David Stride having suffered an ankle injury during the second half of the Reading game, and Pat Corbett and Kevin Hales both under treatment, I was by Monday morning wondering just what sort of team would play at York.

In the event, we named our 12 fittest senior professionals, although as I have already implied, the term fit-test has to be qualified.

York scored an early goal from a set-piece, but after John Cornwell had equalised for us in the second half I thought we might have gone on to win this match.

Instead, a second goal to the home side from Derek Hood to go with that from Dale Banton meant that our recent run of unbeaten League games had been halted.

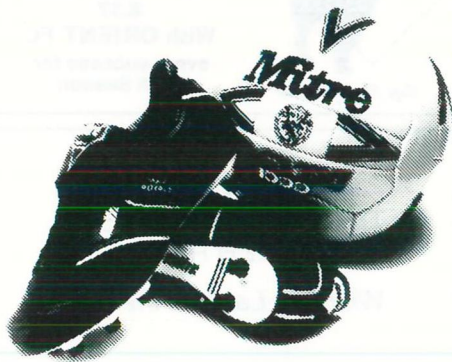

This evening we welcome Bolton Wanderers, who themselves had gained a 3-0 victory at York just four days prior to our own visit.

Although Bolton's away record before that game had not been impressive, a 3-0 victory at York followed by a 2-2 draw at Hull a week ago tonight suggests that their form away from Burnden Park is rapidly improving.

Indeed, reports already with me before they gained those two useful results maintained that they were a basically improved side, and it was only a case of waiting until the goals started to go in and the tide would turn for them.

It is a warning we obviously have to heed this evening.

Did my ears deceive me? I refer to an eminent TV commentator's recent observation, "From up here it looked a blatant penalty as the shot was on target. I don't think he intended to handle as he turned his back on the ball."

The same commentator is a former international and one-time manager of a League club. But on the face of it his familiarity with Law 12 on Fouls and Misconduct, which embraces penalties, must even at his time of life be distinctly questionable.

Law 12 does, after all, begin, "A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences ..."

It goes on to prescribe a penalty-kick for handling the ball within the "area".

Whether shots are on target does not enter into it. The element of intent unequivocally does, so how much credibility can be attached to the outpourings of one who presses his case for a penalty with the argument, "I don't think he intended to handle"?

By coincidence, the club he used to manage now have as their boss an ex-England international who, early in his own playing career, confessed in a radio broadcast that he had rushed taking a penalty and had missed because he feared the final whistle would go before he took it. Notwithstanding the provision within the Laws that "Time shall be extended to permit of a penalty-kick being taken ..."

Names have been withheld to protect the innocent.

Among the more off-beat cautions — or bookings as they have come to be colloquially called — recorded by Essex County FA this season was that arising during an Essex and Suffolk Border League cup-tie between Cressing and Mistley Reserves.

Mistley goalkeeper Philip Armstrong was the recipient. His offence: ungentlemanly conduct in that he was finishing his half-time cigarette on the field of play.

Under the Essex FA tariff ungentlemanly conduct carries a £3 fine.

Not unreasonable justification from referee Terry Ripo was that, "An opposing player or one of his own side could have come into contact with the lighted cigarette in a goalmouth incident and sustained a nasty burn."

The referee's name might be familiar to the significant number of Hackney Speedway-goers among Orient supporters, as Mr. Ripo was for several seasons the regular announcer at our local track just the other side of the marshalling yards.

Indeed, given the appropriate wind direction, there may have even been occasions when his pronouncements could be heard here on those Fridays when there has been speedway at the Wick and soccer at Leyton Stadium.

They do say that in the cause of generating business bookmakers will quote you odds on just about any eventuality. From who will win the FA Cup to the rise in the price of petrol in the next budget.

Almost THE LAST WORD

From DONALD ALLEN
(Recorder Newspapers)

he will offer you on Orient this season achieving a double? Namely, winning the Freight Rover Trophy and the Essex Thameside Trophy?

Give him full marks if he can quote you on the spot.

On a recent visit to a London Football League stadium I passed a moment reading the ground regulations.

At a time when charges by mounted police, missile throwing and attempts to assault players have become part of the unacceptable face of the game at some venues, it was chastening to reflect that the use of obscene language was expressly prohibited.

(Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of Orient Football Club).
